

Signage reminding pupils and staff to socially distance and wash their hands. These are displayed all around school and in the classrooms.

Hub Provision mirrors the classrooms around school with individual work stations.

SEAL work completed by children in the hub provision this week.